Passing the Torch Vernissage

Artists Paula Mitas Zoubek and Terry Sametz celebrated their new show at Santé Restaurant Art Gallery, overlooking Rideau at Sussex, with a big crowd of friends, family, patrons and fellow artists.

After more than 10 years of creating shows for Sante's gallery, during which she supported and presented many of Ottawa's talented visual artists, Paula has decided to step down as curator. Terry, accomplished in many media himself and also a mentor to many young and emerging area talents, has been appointed to carry on Paula's rich tradition of Sante's unique, eye-catching shows.

This changing of the curatorial guard kicks off with a colourful new show highlighting Terry's painted sculptural works and Paula's rich landscapes.

Come see Paula's and Terry's work until September 12. Santé Restaurant Art Gallery
